Your financial aid award letter may include an alternative loan (excluding PLUS and Graduate PLUS). When you apply for this loan we normally split the amount evenly between the semesters for which you are enrolled. If you have applied for or will apply for an alternative loan and would prefer to have your loan funds unequally divided between semesters, please advise us on how much you need for each term.

Please note that the amounts for each semester may be unequal but may not exceed the maximum alternative loan amount listed per semester on your financial aid award letter.
