Theatre Arts Scholarship Additional Information

Scholarship Conditions

It is not necessary to pursue a major or minor in theatre arts in order to be eligible for this scholarship.

Students must be actively involved in the theatre program two of three terms each year (e.g. working backstage, acting in directing scenes/main stage show, etc.) and maintain a 3.0 GPA. Students must also participate in the regular departmental reviews.

Auditions

A select number of students will be invited to audition during Scholarship Day on February 12, 2011. To receive the scholarship, you must audition. Please leave this date open in your calendar until you receive a formal invitation to audition. If you are invited to audition, please RSVP to the Office of Undergraduate Admission at 651-523-2207 or scholarships@hamline.edu as soon as possible.

Each audition will be 15 minutes, including time to talk with the committee, and will take place in Studio 67, the black box theatre in Drew Residence Hall. If you have more than one area of interest, spend the majority of your time demonstrating your strongest area, but feel free to bring other materials to show your range of experience.

Audition Requirements

Performers: Choose two contrasting pieces (each 90 seconds or shorter) that best demonstrate your range and abilities. If you are using a play that you have written, your other selection must be from a published play. Start by introducing your selections and then move directly into your presentation. If you sing, please add a third element consisting of sixteen bars of music. Singers should have a taped accompaniment—singing a capella is not recommended. A chair will be provided for actors who wish to use one but no other props are provided or necessary.

Designers/technicians: Please bring a résumé of shows that you have worked on and any production sketches, models or photos that will assist the committee in visualizing your work. Be prepared to discuss the design process, interesting challenges, special effects, or unique solutions to problems.

Playwrights, directors, and stage managers: Please bring a résumé of shows that you have worked on. Directors and stage managers should bring their production books, show photos, and other documentation that will assist the interview committee. Playwrights should bring scripts. Please note if your work has been performed and bring a production video, if possible.

If you cannot attend the auditions during Scholarship Day, please contact the Office of Undergraduate Admission at 651-523-2207 or scholarships@hamline.edu, and send a DVD/video tape or a portfolio that demonstrates your work to the address below. Materials should be postmarked by February 12, 2011 and marked with your name, address, and the area in which you are auditioning.

Music Scholarship Additional Information

Scholarship Conditions

It is not necessary to pursue a major or minor in music in order to be eligible for this scholarship.

The student must participate in a musical ensemble, and either take private music lessons or enroll in music classes. The student must also maintain a 3.0 GPA.

Auditions

A select group of students will be invited to audition, in-person, with the Scholarship Selection Committee. These students should be prepared to give a performance and discuss their musical achievements. All auditions will be held on Scholarship Day, February 12, 2011. Please be available on this day should you receive a formal invitation to audition.

If you are invited to audition, please RSVP to the Office of Undergraduate Admission at 651-523-2207 or scholarships@hamline.edu as soon as possible so we may set up your practice room and schedule your audition. If you need an accompanist, please let us know when you RSVP for the audition, and send us a copy of your music.

Audition Requirements

Vocal: Two contrasting selections from the standard repertoire. At least one selection should be in a language other than English.

Instrumental: Two contrasting selections exhibiting melodic and technical capabilities from a concerto, sonata, or unaccompanied solo piece. Percussionists, please specify the instruments on which you will be auditioning. Jazz students are encouraged to submit recordings of extended big band solos or small combo performances, either in addition to or in place of a live audition on their primary instrument.

Piano: Two contrasting selections from different historical periods, for example, a Bach Prelude and Fugue and a Chopin Etude, or a movement from a Mozart or Beethoven Sonata and a 20th-century composition.

Composition: Students should submit scores and/or audio files.

Performing from memory is optional.

If you are unable to audition on campus, please contact the Office of Undergraduate Admission at 651-523-2207 or scholarships@hamline.edu, and send a CD, videotape, or DVD of your audition (clearly marked with your name, address, and instrument or voice part) to the address below. All audition materials must be postmarked by February 12, 2011.
