

"The Devil Came on Horseback"
Documentary about the Darfur Genocide
Wednesday, October 7th
Giddens Learning Center
Hamline University
7pm-9pm
Free and open to the public

A Break Thru Films production in association with Global Grassroots and Three Generations

This film depicts the Darfur genocide through the eyes of military observer former U.S. Marine Capt. Brian Steidle.

“Brutal, urgent, devastating - this documentary must be seen by as many people as possible and as soon as possible,” says the New York Times.

Post-film panel discussion with representatives of the Genocide Intervention Network and Stop Genocide Now

Sponsors: Students for a World Without Genocide, Hamline University, Hamline International Graduate Student Association, and the Genocide Intervention Network - Minnesota