

HAMLIN GRADUATE SCHOOL OF EDUCATION

Specialists in education for English Language Learners

The Center for Second Language Teaching and Learning makes teacher education in the area of English as a Second Language (ESL) relevant and convenient.

We custom design courses and workshops to meet the specific needs of your school and district. We can deliver coursework and workshops to your site, in person or online.

Hamline's ESL Licensure program was recently granted National Recognition by the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE) and Teachers of English to Speakers of Other Languages (TESOL), one of very few programs in the United States to be awarded this distinction.

Among the courses or workshops we present:

FOR K-12 TEACHERS—

- The English Language Learner (ELL) in the Mainstream Class
- Developing Literacy with ELLs
- Teaching Content to ELLs in the Mainstream Class
- The Assessment of ELLs
- An Introduction to Hmong Culture and Language
- Survival Spanish for Teachers
- An Introduction to Somali Culture and Language
- ESL Program Improvement Plans
- Instructional Models for Educating ELLs

FOR TEACHERS OF ADULTS—

- Building Reading and Writing Skills with Adult ELLs
- Developing Oral Skills with Adult ELLs
- Course Design for Adult ELLs
- The Assessment of Adult ELLs
