

Community Week 2006

September 20 - 28, 2006

“Celebrating the Spirit of the Hamline University Community”

Wednesday, September 20

One Hundred Who Influence

Klas Center, Kay Fredericks Ballroom; 6:00 PM

The dinner will be held in honor of the many CLA student leaders and will include an address by President Hanson and a chance to mingle with the Board of Trustees. If you are interested in attending this event, please e-mail the Student Congress at husc@hamline.edu.

Thursday, September 21

“This Is My Story”

A Conversation with the Deans

Giddens Learning Center 100E; 11:30 AM

The MISA Office invites you to participate in this story-telling discussion during which members of the university community share personal stories about their racial and cultural identities and journeys. Deans Fernando Delgado (CLA), Mary Rockcastle (GLS) and Julian Schuster (GSM) share stories from their childhood, education, and professional backgrounds. Community Week souvenirs will be given out.

Out and About in the Hamline Midway Neighborhood

Sorin Hall, Rooms A & B; 4:00 PM

Journey with Hamline students, faculty, and staff into our neighborhood. We'll meet neighbors, hear about history and future plans, and visit places for fun, food, shopping, and community involvement in the Midway. Contact the Office of Service Learning and Volunteerism to sign-up for this event. Community Week souvenirs will be given out.

Trip to the Walker Center

Meet at the Student Center; 6:00 PM

Join Mamadada and the Office of Student Activities as we head to the new Walker Art Center in Minneapolis. This world-renowned arts center attracts over a million visitors annually. Sign up at the Student Center Front Desk.

Friday, September 22

Rosh Hashanah and Ramadan

In deference to Hamline University's commitment to creating a "learning environment in which cultural differences are valued," Community Week has made every effort to respect Rosh Hashana and Ramadan in our planning. Rosh Hashana is a "work-restricted" holy day for the Jewish faith that runs from sundown on September 22 through sundown on September 24. During Ramadan, beginning approximately September 24 and lasting for one month, Muslims fast during daylight hours. For more information on these holy days, please consult the RSLO website, www.hamline.edu/rslo.

Saturday, September 23

Tailgate Party & Home Football Game

Klas Center Plaza; 11:30 AM — 1:00 PM

Join your friends for a BBQ lunch, music and school spirit, then cheer the Football Team on to victory over Gustavus Adolphus College. First 200 attendees will receive thunder sticks to cheer on the Fighting Pipers.

Sunday, September 24

Leadership Summit

Klas Center, Kay Fredericks Ballroom; 12:30-5:00 PM

The Leadership Summit is a half-day, student leadership conference that brings students together who are interested in getting more involved on campus and in building their leadership capacities. It is free and open to all students. For more information, visit www.hamline.edu/leadership. Community Week souvenirs will be given out.

Monday, September 25

"Roles, Relationships, Responsibilities: Faculty, Students and Our Academic Community"

Giddens Learning Center 1S; 4:00 PM

The classroom is also a community, where our shared intellectual pursuits connect--sometimes confusingly, sometimes wonderfully--with our social and emotional and ethical values. However, at times, despite a clear sense of a shared educational mission, we may experience conflict. This forum will address the assumptions and beliefs we bring to the classroom. Community Week souvenirs will be given out.

Tuesday, September 26

“Good Morning Commuter!”

University Parking Lots; 7:30 – 9:30 AM

Commuter students make up a large part of the Hamline community. Staff from the Office of Student Activities will be out in the parking lots greeting students with coffee and bagels as you come to campus.

An Introduction to Islam:

Contextualizing The Kite Runner

106 University Conference Center; 11:30 AM
