

FEARLESS

GLBTQ Athletes and Allies Share Their Stories

Photo Exhibition by Jeff Sheng

Bush Library and Bush Student Center, October 12-25

GLBT Issues in University Athletics: A Panel Discussion

Tuesday, October 13
Kay Fredericks Room
11:20 AM - 12:45 PM

Former Women's and Men's Basketball, Lacrosse, Tennis, Volleyball, Softball, Football, athletes share experiences and insights into issues facing GLBT students involved in college athletics.

We'll discuss coming out, bias against and support for GLBT athletes, and the challenges and benefits of being a student who is GLBT and also an athlete.

GLBT Issues in University Athletics: Speaker & Presentation

Tuesday, October 13
Sorin Hall, Rooms A&B
7:00 - 8:30 PM

Jeff Sheng started the Fearless photography project over five years ago, photographing "out" high school and college athletes who identify as GLBT. He has photographed 70 athletes across the country and exhibited this project at over thirty campuses.

Sheng will show his exhibit and discuss his project and findings from his interviews with GLBT high school and college athletics.

Sponsored by the Safe Zone Network.
For more information, phone 651-523-2421
or visit: www.hamline.edu/safezone