

Continuing Legal Education Seminar “Three E’s: E-Discovery, Ethics & Elimination of Bias”

*FREE for those who judge two or more rounds at the National Mock Trial Championship Tournament, April 13-15, 2012 in Minneapolis, MN

CLE Seminar Date: Thursday, April 12, 2012 Time: 8:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m. with lunch & refreshment breaks included

Location: Hamline University, Sorin A&B, 1536 Hewitt Ave, St. Paul, MN 55104

Approved for: 6.5 credits (2.75 standard, 1.75 ethics and 2 elimination of bias) Event code: 165718.

Cost: $175 or FREE to those who judge * Questions? Email: mocktrial@hamline.edu

Course Chairs: Jeanne Kosieradzki, Jackie Palmer & Judy Gunnarson

Register Now!! Space is limited

Agenda

- |                  |  |
|------------------|--|
| 8:00 - 8:30 am   | Registration and continental breakfast   |
| 8:30- 9:15 am    | Trust Account Scams: Did Someone Really Fall For That?Cassie Hanson, Senior Assistant Director, Lawyer's Board of Professional ResponsibilityLearn how to recognize trust account scams and what you can do to protect yourself.   |
| 9:15-10:15 am    | Getting Paid Right: 9 Rules for Effective (and Ethical) Client BillingTodd Scott, V.P. Risk Management, Minnesota Lawyers Mutual Insurance CompanyUnderstand the ethical obligations of client fee arrangements and identify the systems and methods used to recover fees efficiently, correctly, and to the client's satisfaction.                                |
| 10:15-10:30 am   | Break  |
| 10:30 - 11:30 am | Working Effectively with Muslim ClientsImani Jaafar-Mohammad, Partner, Mohammad & Jaafar-Mohammad, LLCBackground information on Islam, legal issues facing the Muslim community, and practice tips for advocates.  |
| 11:30am-12:00n   | Lunch provided by Hamline  |
| 12:00- 1:00pm    | Racial Disparities: Crafting SolutionsJudge Pamela Alexander, President, Council on Crime & JusticeAn overview of issues surrounding the disproportionate representation of communities of color in the criminal justice system, its impact on the legal profession and our justice system.  |
| 1:00-2:00 pm     | Electronic Discovery– The Process of Reducing Mountains to MolehillsConnie Martin, Director of Consulting Services, Advantage LitigationGain a working understanding of the issues with the e-discovery process, as well as practical tips to navigate through it.   |
| 2:00-2:15pm      | Break  |
| 2:15-3:15 pm     | Computer Forensics and E-Discovery: the Changing Nature of Litigation and TechnologyPaul Lehr, Managing Director and Chief Privacy Officer, Stroz Friedberg LLCA look into the changing nature of technology and the challenges it imposes on litigators, as well as a discussion of collection techniques and ethical pitfalls related to new data sources.       |
| 3:15 – 4:00 pm   | High Impact Trial Presentations - Documents, Courtrooms and Attorneys Combining with TechnologyConnie Martin, Director of Consulting Services, Advantage LitigationTrial presentation strategies utilizing software and audio visual equipment, as well as a discussion of the process of working with trial consultants to maximize your time in front of a jury. |