

2013 RIDGWAY FORUM FELLOWS NOMINATION FORM

Ridgway Forum Fellows should be instantly recognizable as individuals reflecting Hamline’s core values, and acknowledged for academic achievement and undeniable potential. They should have personal qualities that reflect positively on Hamline University and enable them to represent the University on appropriate occasions. Candidates should be completing their junior year in any undergraduate field commit to completing their undergraduate education at Hamline University. The recipients are presented with a $5,000 award at Honors Day.

All candidates must be nominated by a member of the Hamline University faculty.

To read more about the selection process and guidelines for successful nominations, go to <http://www.hamline.edu/offices/asa/>

Nominee Name:	School: <input type="checkbox"/> CLA <input type="checkbox"/> HSE <input type="checkbox"/> HSB
Current Campus Address: Street, City, State, Zip Code	Permanent Address: Street, City, State, Zip Code
Telephone:	Telephone:
Email:	Email:
Nominated by (Name): Nominator’s Email:	Nominator’s Telephone: Address:

Selection Criteria to be addressed in the nomination letter:

- The nominee reflects Hamline’s core values.
- The nominee has achieved academically and has demonstrated/is recognized for his/her potential.
- The nominee must be a junior as defined by academic credits.

To apply submit the following to the Ridgway Forum Fellows Committee by

March 22, 2013 (by midnight):

- A nomination letter (maximum of 3 pages) in narrative format that convincingly describes how the nominee meets the selection criteria above.
- The nominated student’s resume.
- This nomination form.

1.

Submit all materials electronically to the Provost at provost@hamline.edu indicating “Ridgway Forum Fund Fellow nomination” in the subject line.