

HAMLIN
UNIVERSITY
School of Education

MAEd:NSEE Program Planner

Name: _____ ID: _____

MAEd NSEE Required Core Courses		Offerings	Credits
GED 8200	Understanding Learning	Fall & Spring	2
GED 8210	Investigating Contemporary and Critical Issues in Education	Spring & Summer	2
GED 8220	Policy, Leadership and Advocacy for Educators	Summer & Fall	4
NSEE 8110	Foundations in Natural Science and Environmental Ed	Fall & Spring	4
NSEE 8130	Environment and Society	Summer only, on campus	4
OR*
NSEE 8120	Earth Systems: Biomes	Summer only, on campus	4
GED 8400	Research Design (prerequisite is all core coursework)	Each Term	4
GED 8495 OR GED 8490	Capstone Thesis (taken after 8400) Capstone Project (taken after 8400)	Each Term	4
Total Required Credits:			24 credits
Elective Courses
10 credits-Elective courses are online or F2F. Students in this program typically take courses in Science Ed (SCED) or Environmental Ed (ENED). NSEE 8120 or NSEE 8130 May be taken as an elective if students have fulfilled their required core courses.			10

	Students may select concentration areas including early childhood environmental education, sustainability, place-based education; or create their own elective concentration area with approval of the program chair/coordinator. Students are strongly advised to work with the program director to ensure their elective choices meet all required program outcomes See “NSEE electives” planning document.
Total Elective Credits:			10 credits
Total Degree Credit Requirement:			34 credits