

AFFIDAVIT OF FINANCIAL SUPPORT

FOR INTERNATIONAL UNDERGRADUATE STUDENT APPLICANTS

You must complete the reverse side of this statement and return it with the required documentation.

Hamline University requires certification of adequate financial support from international applicants (those with non-immigrant visas). This completed Affidavit of Financial Support must be on file before the university can issue an I-20. This form must be accompanied by an official bank statement(s) and/or proof of funding from the sponsors listed.

ESTIMATED COSTS FOR 2018-2019 ACADEMIC YEAR*

These charges are subject to change without notice and the student should be prepared for any adjustment in expenses. At present, estimated expenses for a single undergraduate student are as follows (US dollars):

1. Undergraduate tuition (two semesters, full-time)	40,284
2. Living expenses (room and board)	10,358
3. Student fees	1,499
4. Books	690
5. Health insurance (mandatory for international students)	1,700

TOTAL $54,531

*Please note: this total does not include miscellaneous personal expenses, which can vary widely.

Single students must provide evidence of minimum financial support in the amount of US $54,531 (this is your TOTAL on the reverse side) to meet expenses for an academic year in the United States. If you have received a Hamline International Excellence Scholarship, that should be reflect in YOUR TOTAL COST OF ATTENDANCE, on the reverse side of this sheet.

Financial documentation requirements (these must accompany the completed Affidavit of Financial Support, reverse side). You may find more detailed information about the requirements for financial documents online, at www.hamline.edu/students/international/financial-document-requirements.html.

- Financial documents must be ORIGINAL for new applicants (must be on original bank letterhead and include an original stamp and/or signature from a bank official). Scanned, photocopied, or faxed documents will not be accepted, unless you are a current Hamline student or scholar applying for a program extension.
- Financial documents must be less than 6 months old at the time the I-20 is issued.
- These documents must be in English, or include an official English translation.
- Amount of funding must cover your complete costs for your first academic year (9 months).
- Financial documents may be from one or more of the following sources:
 - a personal bank statement or letter from a bank official;
 - a bank statement or letter from a bank official indicating funds from a family member or private sponsor;
 - an official letter from a sponsoring organization or government agency providing financial support for the purposes of education – this letter must clearly indicate the amount of funding and what is covered (e.g. tuition and fees, living expenses, health insurance, etc.);
 - a scholarship or award letter from Hamline University;
 - an official letter from a lending institution including specific amount of an approved loan (must indicate that the loan is for the student's education).
