

Do Not Overload

Pile clothes loosely in washer, leaving about 5" of space from the top.

One washer load equals one dryer load.

Clothing needs to tumble freely in the dryer; if overloaded the load will not dry and some clothing can be damaged.