

Emily as a faculty advisor:

1) I Am Happy to Work with Students in the Following Genres/Areas:

Picture books, young middle-grade fiction, comedies, YA realistic fiction

2) Other Things to Know About Me as an Advisor:

I like to be in dialog with my students. I don't consider it your job to agree with my comments but to engage with them. I can be opinionated, but I welcome disagreement and friendly argument. That said, I'll be asking for large-scale revisions pretty often, as I believe most good writing happens in the rewriting. I trained as a literary critic and will be thorough in responding to critical essays.

3) Books of Mine I Recommend That You Read:

Lemonade in Winter

Toys Go Out

The Disreputable History of Frankie Landau-Banks (published under the name E. Lockhart)
