

Hamline School of Business Mission, Values and Vision Statement

A. Mission

The Hamline School of Business is an inclusive community dedicated to the professional and personal development of our students, faculty and staff and to the advancement of the common good. We achieve our mission through teaching excellence, the integration of theory and practice, and the engagement of a network of stakeholders (including alumni and community partners) to address complex issues facing the business, government and non-profit sectors. We see our mission firmly rooted within the values of Hamline University.

B. Values

Hamline University recognizes its roots in the traditions and values of the United Methodist Church. Through our personal and collective effort, we will make a lasting difference in the world as we aspire to the highest standards for:

- Creation, dissemination, and practical application of knowledge
- Rigor, creativity, and innovation in teaching, learning, and research
- Multicultural competencies in local and global contexts
- The development and education of the whole person
- An individual and community ethic of social justice, civic responsibility, and inclusive leadership and service

C. Vision

Where business, government, and non-profit sectors intersect to educate and collaborate for the common good.
