Comments about Academic Advising

-My advisors made things crystal clear and showed me how to get back on track.

-My advising experience here has always been very helpful, and I feel that I can go to my advisors for anything I need.

-Everybody at Hamline is rooting for my success, and that is awesome. I know whoever I turn to will give me solid advice that they really have considered before giving me.

-It has never been unpleasant in any way. My advising staff has always been helpful and productive.

-They've been really helpful in getting me through my first couple semesters here at Hamline as a transfer student.

-I have felt very guided here on the Hamline Campus.

-Great so far. Looking forward to getting to know my advisor for my major when I eventually declare.

53% of students met with their advisors regularly (students strongly agree/agree)
