

Curricular Map for the BA in Economics

BA Econ			ECON 1310: Micro-economics	ECON 1320: Macro-economics	QMBE 1310: Statistics	COMM: Public Speaking or Small Group Comm or Argumentation	MATH 1170: Calculus or MATH 1162 Calculus I-B	ECON 3110: Intermediate Micro-economics	ECON 3120: Intermediate Macro-economics	ECON 5820: Econometrics	ECON 5860: Senior Seminar	Internship with Seminar (Not Required)
1	Our students will be effective communicators.
		Students will write professional documents.	I	I				R	E		E
		Students will deliver professional formal presentations.				I (depends on course choice)		I	R	R	E
2	Our students will possess strong critical thinking and problem-solving skills.
		Students will use appropriate methodology to analyze and synthesize data.	I	I	I			R	E	E	R
3	Our students will possess core content knowledge*.
	* This will be assessed through a core content exam applied outside of courses, taken before the capstone course.	Students will understand core concepts and demonstrate knowledge in microeconomics, macroeconomics, statistics and econometrics.
4	Our students will possess the ability to use technology appropriate to their professions.
		Students will demonstrate proficiency in using analytical software tools.	I	I	I			E		R	R
Hamline Plan
W	Writing Intensive											W
O	Oral Intensive					O						O
P	Liberal Education as Practice (LEAP)											P
DB	Disciplinary Breadth		S	S
R	Formal Reasoning				R		R
M	Quantitative Reasoning				M		M
Q	Independent Critical Inquiry and Information Literacy							Q2			Q3	