

Coronavirus Response and Relief Supplemental Appropriation Act (CRRSAA),
Student Emergency Assistance Awards -
April - June 2021 Report

This report contains information that is required by the U.S. Department of Education.

Hamline University was awarded $1,285,114 by the U.S. Department of Education (Ed) in accordance with Section 18004(a)(1) of the Coronavirus Response and Relief Supplemental Appropriations Act, 2021 (CRRSAA) to provide emergency financial aid awards to students. As a recipient of CARES Act funding, the CARES Certification and Agreement authorized by Hamline’s President Miller in May 2020 served as the assurance that the institution would use the applicable amount of funds designated under the CRRSAA for emergency financial aid awards to students.

As of June 30, 2021, the total number of students at Hamline University who were determined to meet the institution’s standards for eligibility to receive a CRRSAA emergency financial award was determined to be 2,825. As of June 30, 2021, the last day of the second quarter of 2021, the distribution of emergency financial aid assistance to students was complete. Hamline has followed federal guidelines in determining which students were eligible to receive an award and award amounts, and has prioritized students with “exceptional need.” The Office of Financial Aid developed lists of students who met Hamline University’s definition of students with exceptional need, including undergraduate students who were Pell grant eligible. Grant award amounts were set in a consistent manner based upon each applicant's AY2021 expected family contribution and enrollment percentage.

The following table presents the expected family contribution (EFC) category ranges, number of students in each range to receive a CRRSAA emergency assistance award, and the award amounts.
