

International Education Week

November 11-15, 2013

Events at a Glance

Monday.....End Slavery: Human Trafficking Awareness

Hamline University School of Law Room 101

Breaking Free From Human Trafficking (6:00-8 p.m.)

Community Response To Human Trafficking (8:00-9 p.m.)

Come join community experts on this relevant and global issue.

Food provided

Tuesday.....International Bazaar

Anderson Student Center, Forum (11:00-1pm)

Come enjoy food, art, and entertainment

Wednesday.....Social Media in International Affairs

Anderson Student Center Room #111

Social Media and Social Movements (9:40-11 a.m.)

Social Media and Education (2:30-4 p.m.)

Learn about the impact social media has on present day international affairs. This is a two day conference. Refreshments and beverages provided, following the last session each day.

Thursday.....Social Media in International Affairs

Anderson Student Center Room #304

Social Media and Public Policy (9:40-11 a.m.)

Student Projects: A Look at Social Media in World Events (2:30-4 p.m.)

"There and Back Again: Piper Travelers' Tales"

Anderson Student Center, forum (11:30-1pm)

Join us for a poster session presented by returning study abroad students as they share photos and stories from their journeys from abroad.

Friday.....International Round Table:

Giddens Learning Center Room 1S (11:30-12:30pm)

3rd Annual International GALA

Klas Center, Kay Fredericks Room (6:30-8:30 pm)

